Clarification of News Report

We refer to the letter of the PSE, asking us to clarify or confirm today the quoted statements below in relation to the following news article entitled "7 conglomerates interested in Sangley airport" posted in philstar.com news on November 13, 2019. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — At least seven companies, including conglomerate Metro Pacific Investments Corp., the Villar Group and Lucio Tan's MacroAsia, have expressed their interest in teaming up with the provincial government of Cavite for a $10-billion project that would transform the Sangley Airport into a world-class international gateway.

Cavite Governor Jonvic Remulla told The STAR that a total of seven firms have purchased bid documents for the Sangley Point International Airport Project as the deadline for interested parties to buy the said documents lapsed on Monday.

The seven companies are MPIC, MacroAsia Properties Development Corp., Prime Holdings of real estate magnate and former Sen. Manuel B. Villar Jr., Philippine Airport Ground Solutions Inc., Langham Properties Inc., Chinese Communications Construction Co., and Mosveldt Law Offices.

We confirm that MacroAsia Corporation ("MAC") bought the bid documents for the Sangley Airport Project and that MAC is interested to participate in the said project. No further details are available as of the moment. We trust that this clarifies the news item mentioned above.
