Clarification of News Report

We refer to the letter of the PSE, asking us to clarify or confirm on or before 4 p.m. today, October 3, 2022 the quoted statements below in relation to the following news article entitled "Sangley airport construction may start by Q3 next year" posted in BusinessWorld (Online Edition) on October 3, 2022, it was reported in part that:

"THE CAVITE provincial government expects construction of the $11-billion Sangley Point International Airport Project, which will serve as an alternative to the Ninoy Aquino International Airport (NAIA), to start as early as the third quarter of 2023.

The signing of the joint venture and development agreement is expected to take place this month. The parties will work on finalizing the airport's design and business plan, the provincial government said.

....

The first phase of the project, which includes the first of four runways, is expected to be operational by 2028. The second phase will result in a two-runway system with airport facilities capable of handling at least 75 million passengers every year.

...."

The news article pertains to information provided by the Hon. Governor of Cavite. We confirm the consortium-related information provided therein, and we reiterate our disclosure on this project on September 15, 2022, which also includes the press release for this.
