I. CALL TO ORDER

On behalf of the Chairman and CEO, Dr. Lucio C. Tan, Mr. Lucio C. Tan III, Director of the Corporation, delivered the following message to the stockholders of MacroAsia Corporation:

“I convey this message on behalf of our Chairman, Dr. Lucio C. Tan who is extending his warmest greetings to everyone in this Annual Stockholders’ Meeting of MacroAsia Corporation.

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

The past few years have brought profound changes to society, reshaping the way we live and do business. Lockdowns were swiftly enforced, air travel came to a near standstill except for essential repatriation flights, and individuals and businesses alike had to adapt to unprecedented challenges brought by COVID-19. As the pandemic’s severity eased, the world evolved, embracing new ways of working, shifting consumer priorities, and rapidly adjusting to new realities.

MacroAsia Corporation is no stranger to this transformation. While the aviation industry faced an extended period of uncertainty, our company—once primarily focused on aviation-related services—demonstrated resilience and adaptability. We seized opportunities beyond our core operations, expanding into new business areas. By growing our footprint in the catering industry and accelerating the expansion of our water service operations, we successfully executed our “Scale the Edges” strategy. This diversification effort has proven instrumental, with non-aviation-related businesses now contributing 22% of our total revenues in the past year. This shift has not only reinvigorated our company but also redefined our purpose, guiding us toward a more dynamic and sustainable future.

Our catering business exemplifies this growth. From 13.7 million meals served in 2019, we sold 23.5 million meals in 2024. What once catered primarily to airline clients has now expanded to serve nationally recognized institutions beyond the airport. By leveraging our operational excellence and our deep understanding of diverse culinary preferences, MacroAsia has strengthened its reputation for quality—a foundation that promises even greater potential ahead.

Similarly, our water operations, which were not originally part of MacroAsia's business model, have emerged as a key revenue driver. This segment has grown from 18,038 service connections in 2019 to 21,019 in 2020—despite pandemic-related disruptions—and has since surged to nearly 75,000 connections in 2024. As we continue enhancing our expertise in this field, we are confident in the potential for further expansion. By integrating cutting-edge technologies, streamlining operations, and broadening our service coverage, we aim to position MacroAsia as a major player in the water sector while driving synergies across our business units.

Overall, our top-line revenue has grown by 18%, increasing from Php7.9 billion in 2023 to Php9.4 billion in 2024. While our diversification strategy played a pivotal role in this growth, our core aviation services remain a solid foundation for the company. Additionally, our investments in associates performed well, delivering over Php721.4 million in contributions.

Beyond financial success, MacroAsia remains a platform for innovation and growth. Having surpassed our pre-pandemic workforce levels, we recognize that our greatest asset is our people. Their dedication, talent, and perseverance have been the driving force behind our progress. Their ideas and expertise continue to shape a stronger, more resilient company—one that plays a vital role in serving the Filipino people and contributing to national progress.

None of our achievements would have been possible without your unwavering support. To our valued stakeholders, you remain at the core of our journey, driving us to reach new heights. From its humble beginnings as a shell company nearly thirty years ago, MacroAsia has grown into a trusted provider of essential services that positively impacts countless lives. I sincerely hope that, together, we will continue to build on this success and achieve even greater milestones in the years to come.

I will now turn over the floor to Mr. Eduardo Luis T. Luy, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Corporation, who will preside over this meeting."

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND COO

Dear Shareholders, Management, Staff, and Stakeholders of MacroAsia Corporation,

I am deeply grateful for the hard work and dedication of our teams, whose relentless efforts continue to drive our company's success. Even before the pandemic, under the visionary leadership of our former Chairman, Washington SyCip, and former Director, Lucio K. Tan, Jr., MacroAsia was already exploring greenfield projects and expanding its business segments. Today, these forward-thinking initiatives remain integral to our company's growth and resilience.

What began as a dormant mining company has evolved into a diversified enterprise, encompassing multiple business lines. From catering the national flag carrier plus over 17 other airlines and providing ground services at Manila's primary gateway and more than 20 other airports to managing nearly 75,000 water connections and reviving key mining operations, MacroAsia has become synonymous with service excellence and innovation.

This past year, our company surpassed the Php2 billion mark in EBITDA, propelled by the robust performance of our food and water segments. These areas, which became a strategic focus during the pandemic, have not only strengthened our financial standing but also diversified our revenue streams. At the same time, our commitment to sustainable cost leadership and cost efficiency has yielded positive results, with direct costs as a percentage of revenue decreasing amid expansion. A record high in our operating history, our 2024 net income at Php1.37 billion is up 28% from the previous year. Through the ingenuity and resilience of our teams, we have mitigated risks, safeguarded our business, and laid the foundation for long-term growth.

Allow me to highlight key developments in our core business segments and our outlook for the future:

Catering Segment

In January 2024, MacroAsia SATS Food Industries (MSFI) expanded its footprint by launching operations in the Citibank Plaza Building, Bonifacio Global City. This 24/7 facility serves approximately 6,500 employees, offering a range of dining options, from executive meals for VIPs to quick-service vending machine selections. This milestone reinforces MacroAsia's growing presence in institutional catering and strengthens our reputation in the industry.

To meet rising demand and support our expanding portfolio, MSFI is investing in a Php1.4 billion expansion project to double production capacity from 45,000 to 90,000 meals per day. The new facility, adjacent to our existing commissary in a land owned by MacroAsia, will include enhanced cold storage, additional R&D space, and state-of-the-art equipment to drive operational efficiency and innovation. With a tight construction timeline, we aim to commence operations within the next two years.

In response to increasing food and production costs, we are also exploring vertical integration strategies to improve supply chain efficiency. While traditional sourcing remains a priority, we are identifying alternative procurement channels—particularly for price-sensitive agricultural products—to stabilize costs and enhance financial sustainability.

Further, we continue to explore new markets as part of our diversification strategy. While airline catering remains a core business, our foray into institutional food services presents untapped opportunities. We are evaluating potential projects that will not only drive financial returns but also extend our geographical reach. As we expand into non-airline markets, we embrace the learning curve and remain committed to positioning MacroAsia as a key player in this space.

Water Segment

In September 2024, we broke ground on a new desalination plant in Lapu-Lapu, Cebu, with an initial capacity of 15 million liters per day (MLD) and a target supply contract to scale up to 60 MLD. Through our subsidiary, Summa Water Resources, Inc., we are developing similar OEM projects across the country to meet the increasing demand for potable water. These initiatives align well with our existing water subsidiaries, strengthening our market presence. Our other water businesses continue to perform well. Aqualink Resources Inc. and Naic Water Supply Corporation now serve over 42,000 and 22,000 connections, respectively, while Boracay Tubi Systems Inc. maintains a strong market position, covering nearly half of Boracay Island. Meanwhile, SNV Resources Development Corporation has reached a self-sustaining stage and is investing on a larger pipeline network.

Collectively, our water businesses under Allied Water Services, Inc. are poised for steady growth. While our current projects provide a nationwide footprint, we aim to leverage Filipino engineering expertise and form strategic international partnerships to enhance our technologies and operations for even greater impact.

Other Projects

Our joint venture with Konoike Transport Co., Ltd. (Konoike) continues to add value for both parties. MacroAsia Airport Services Corporation (MASCorp) has deployed over 100 trainees to various airport locations in Japan, and we have strengthened this program through partnerships with colleges. By incorporating a Japanese language curriculum into training, we are improving deployment readiness and accelerating career growth for our interns. Additionally, Konoike has been instrumental in sharing best practices in aviation safety, reinforcing MASCorp's commitment to a zero-incident work environment.

First Aviation Academy (FAA), our flight training joint venture with the PTC Group, has supported three cohorts of aspiring pilots since its inception. To improve accessibility, we have partnered with Philippine National Bank to offer specialized loan programs for tuition and living expenses. These initiatives aim to increase student enrollment while streamlining training operations to enhance throughput.

While aviation-related services remain our primary revenue driver, we are committed to increasing the contribution of new projects in the medium to long term, especially those located outside of airport locations. Some initiatives are already in motion, while others are under evaluation amidst evolving geopolitical and market conditions. Despite the inherent risks, our entrepreneurial spirit remains steadfast as we pursue innovation and sustainable growth.

A Shared Vision for the Future

Your trust and support remain vital to our journey, and I am confident that we will continue to achieve greater milestones together. On behalf of the entire MacroAsia team, I extend my gratitude to our suppliers, customers, management team, and staff—your dedication is the driving force behind our success.

I also wish to thank our Board of Directors for their invaluable guidance, wisdom, and encouragement. Your leadership has been instrumental in shaping MacroAsia's future.

And to you, our esteemed shareholders, I deeply appreciate your unwavering confidence—whether you have been with us for decades or have joined us in recent years. It is my sincere hope that we continue to exceed your expectations, not only in investment value but also as a catalyst for positive change in society.

Sincerely,

EDUARDO LUIS T. LUY
President and COO

CFO's Annual Report
For the Year Ended December 31, 2024

To Our Valued Stakeholders,

It is with great pride that I present the financial results of our Group for the year ended December 31, 2024. The year's performance reflects the strength of our diversified portfolio, the strategic integration of our business segments, and the unwavering commitment of our teams to deliver value amid dynamic market conditions.

For 2024, consolidated net income reached ₱1.37 billion, a significant 28% increase from ₱1.07 billion in 2023. This growth was underpinned by the sustained recovery in aviation-related services, continued expansion in food operations, and the solid progress of our water and support service businesses.

Revenue Growth Across Core Segments

The Group's consolidated revenues reached new highs, driven by strong contributions from all business segments:

- Food Services and In-Flight Catering accounted for 47% of total revenues, growing by 11%, supported by a 4% increase in meal count—from 22.8 million meals in 2023 to 23.7 million in 2024.
- Ground Handling and Aviation Services contributed 44% of group revenues and posted a remarkable 33% year-on-year increase, reflecting higher flight volumes, robust ramp and passenger services, and the expanded operations of First Aviation Academy.
- Water Operations achieved a 21% revenue increase, driven by higher billed volumes and the broadening of service coverage.
- Support Services, notably Connectivity and Technology Solutions, generated ₱62.4 million in revenues during its second year, marking strong progress following the completion of our fiber backbone and containerized data center infrastructure.

Profitability and Operational Efficiency

Operational discipline remained a core focus. Our direct cost ratio improved to 75.29%, down from 78.21% in 2023, signaling enhanced cost efficiency.

Despite increased operating expenses tied to business expansion and lease rate adjustments, we achieved stronger returns across key metrics:

- Return on Equity (ROE) : 22.59%
- Return on Assets (ROA) : 10.22%
- Return on Investment (ROI) : 14.08%

These indicators reflect strategic capital deployment, operational productivity, and our continuing efforts to enhance shareholder value.

Maintaining a Solid Financial Position

As of December 31, 2024, the Group's total assets rose to ₱13.42 billion, increasing by ₱722.7 million from the prior year. Cash and cash equivalents grew by 29%, underscoring strong cash generation and sound liquidity management.

Total liabilities declined by 6%, driven by active loan repayments, reduced payables, and a more favorable debt-to-equity ratio of 11.95%. Additionally, our interest coverage ratio improved to 14.57x, further affirming the Group's healthy financial position and capacity to meet debt obligations.

Strategic Partnerships Driving Value

Our investments in associates contributed ₱731.5 million in net earnings, with Lufthansa Technik Philippines continuing to generate strong results through its base maintenance operations.

Meanwhile, our joint ventures in Cebu and Japan in both catering and ground handling services achieved marked improvements, highlighting the strength of our regional presence and the value of synergistic partnerships.

Looking Ahead

The performance of 2024 reinforces the effectiveness of our long-term strategy: to strengthen complementary business verticals, leverage cross-segment synergies, and remain agile in addressing the evolving needs of our customers and industries.

As we move forward into 2025 and beyond, we remain focused on expanding capacity, optimizing operational efficiency, and creating sustainable value. The successful restructuring within our Food Group, combined with a disciplined approach to capital and dividend policies, positions MacroAsia for continued growth and value creation.

A Message of Gratitude

I extend my heartfelt appreciation to our management teams, employees, and partners, whose hard work and commitment have been instrumental in delivering this outstanding performance. To our shareholders, thank you for your continued trust and support.

We move forward into the new year with the same resilience, clarity, and shared purpose that defined our success in 2024.

Sincerely,
